Local Department.

Summer has come.

Ed. Cummings is in town.

Del. Cummings went to Niles on Wednesday to play with Bullard.

Mr. G. E. Chappell has been quite ill for some days past, but is recovering.

The Free Methodists have erected a tent near E. G. Butler's, where they are holding daily meetings.

Mrs. W. K. Butler has our thanks for a beautiful bouquet, which was left on our table last Wednesday.

Riley Bangs has a nice new carriage and horse team in the rear of his residence on Kalamazoo street.

Dr. Scott has changed his office to the rooms over Free & Martin's store. See the change in his card.

Mrs. Maria Hudson has bought seventy-five acres of the Willard estate, near Prospect Hill cemetery.

They say that Mrs. Frank Stearns and Mrs. Will Snow will start for Aberdeen for a visit, in a few days.

Paw Paw has the largest school man's in the county, and they are just as good as they are handsome.

E. G. Butler called us into his store the other morning to look at some new china ware he has just received. It is handsome.

A. Hathaway, of the firm of A. Hathaway & Co., spent Sunday with his family in town. He reports the lumber business as flourishing.

Miss Dillie gave an entertainment in her department of the school, last Friday. The little folks acquitted themselves very creditably.

Chas. E. Galligan, Esq., has removed from town to his farm. We understand that his poor health is what induced him to leave town.

Miss Shedd will conduct a dance at Town Hall next Friday evening. Bill 75 cents. She intends to give weekly parties during the summer.

The Paw Paw Herald looked full as well as usual, last week, if not a little better. Van better stay away and let May run the establishment.

The board of review were in session at the office of the town clerk on Monday and Tuesday. But few changes were made in the assessment roll.

Mr. G. F. Cole, brother of Rev. G. L. Cole, has become a resident of our village. He has purchased Mrs. Hendrick's residence, paying therefor $2900.

The union meeting at the Disciple church on Sunday evening last was largely attended. A fine sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Gault, of Dayton, Ohio.

We hear that Damsby & Sage have purchased that part of the Granger Block, occupied by Lew Roberts as a barber shop, paying therefor $1200.

Dr. Failing, of Gobles, will locate at Grand Rapids. The denizens of that city will not find him pulling in any of the qualities that go to make a good physician.

Mrs. I. B. Conner has been very ill for some time past, and on Wednesday morning last it was reported that she was dead, but the report proved to be untrue.

The annual reunion of the VanBuren County Pioneers' association will be held at Lawton, on Wednesday, June 6th, 1883. A general attendance is requested.

Main street is being graded, beginning near the Free Baptist church and extending westward. The work will probably be continued to Kalamazoo street, perhaps farther.

Owing to the hard rain last Friday night farmers could not work Saturday and our streets were thronged with teams, and the walks and stores thronged with people all day.

Monday next is quarterly pension day. Miss Mamie Rowland will be at the office of C. A. Harrison in the Court House, for the purpose of executing vouchers for pensioners.

The summer running meeting of the Chicago Driving Park will be held from June 23d to July 4th, inclusive. 611 entries have been made and the premiums amount to more than $40,000.

Ed. You have just as good a right to paint it green as any other color, but you shouldn't be so quick tempered when your color blind acquaintances manifest their curiosity in regard to it.

At its last regular meeting held on Thursday evening of last week, Brodhead Post G. A. R. unanimously tendered a formal vote of thanks to those who contributed toward the purchase of their new banner.

We have received a copy of the St. Joseph Herald containing an elaborate article setting forth the beauties and advantages of that place. It is a good article and is a good indication of the enterprise of the Herald.

The probabilities are that neither our principal, Prof. Cupples, nor his assistant, Miss Thomas, will remain another year with our school. All, or nearly all, the other teachers will probably continue in their present positions.

The annual meeting of the Michigan State Pioneer Society, has been postponed until June 13th, 1883, at 2 o'clock p. m., at which time it will open in Representative Hall, at Lansing, and continue through the day and evening of the 14th.

Born on Wednesday night of last week, to Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Hilton a daughter, but unfortunately, the little waif of humanity was not long for this world, as it died the next day. This was the second child born to them, both of which they have buried.

Will Hinchley has sold out his dry and back business to Frank Warren. Frank signified his advent last Friday evening by allowing his team to run away with the Dyckman House bus. No great damage done beyond frightening some ladies on the streets.

At the last meeting of our school board, it voted to change the readers used in school, and adopt Swinton's new readers, an excellent series of books; provided the publishers would exchange their new books for the old ones now in use, without cost to the patrons of the school.

The monthly union temperance meeting, partaking largely of the character of a citizens' meeting, will be held at the brick Baptist church, on Sunday evening next, at which time it is expected that the committees appointed at the last temperance meeting will report.

The entertainment at the Opera House last Monday evening conducted by the Misses Shedd, assisted by a number of our local vocalists, was very good and was deserving of a more liberal patronage than it received. Some of the music both instrumental and vocal was peculiarly fine.

A floral song festival will be given by the children at the First Baptist church, on Wednesday evening, June 6th, at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents. After which the cream will be served in the church parlor. Let all those who love to hear children sing come and hear the quiver of the flowers.

The annual reunion of the Union Prisoners of War Association, will be held at Greenville, Montcalm county, Mich., June 13th and 14th, 1883. Union prisoners of war, members of the Grand Army of the Republic (individually and as Posts), and all veterans, are cordially invited to attend. Reduced rates on nearly all railroads.

Those baking powder prizes which Duncombe Stearns & Co. have had up for some time past, were drawn a few days since, with the following result. No. 41, china tea set, F. S. Millington. No. 150, Shakespeare in eight volumes, James Waters. No. 131, Macaulay's History of England, C. A. Harrison. No. 28, Macaulay's Essays, Mrs. Stocking, of Lawton.

The Farmers Association of Antwerp and Paw Paw, will meet at the farm of A. O. Glidden, on Thursday, June 7th. Members are expected to arrive at 10 o'clock a. m. Programme: "To What Extent is Modern Agriculture Indebted to the Improvement in Farm Implements and Machinery," J. J. Woodman; Select reading, Mrs. E. P. Mills; Essay—"The System of English and American Agriculture Compared," James Bale.

Some misunderstanding having arisen between the village and John W. Ball, late treasurer of the village, in regard to a settlement, the village authorities have commenced a suit by filing a declaration in our circuit court. Mr. B. thinks he has a perfect defense to the suit. We have not the slightest doubt but he means to do what he thinks is right and just in the matter, and we are equally sure that the village board want nothing more than is due. Which party is right in their understanding of the matter, time will probably show.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. David Gurnsey assembled at their residence in this village on Friday last, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage. A very pleasant time was had and the presents bestowed on the couple who for fifty years have traveled the pathway of life together, were numerous, beautiful, and valuable. The only drawback to the occasion was the ill health of Mrs. G., who was able to sit up but a small portion of the time. The Non-traveller was remembered with a liberal supply of the wedding cake. We hope the newly re-married couple may yet be spared for many years.

Died, on the morning of May 30th, Mark Woodman, son of the late Dr. L. C. Woodman. Mark had been ill for several months with Bright's disease of the kidneys, and his death was not unexpected. This leaves only one remaining member—a young lad—of what a few short months since was a happy family consisting of father, mother and two sons. In this renewed affliction the bereaved relatives have the hearty sympathy of the entire community. No family of this village was more widely known, nor more highly respected than that of Dr. Woodman. Their speedy taking away is a forcible reminder of the frail tenure of this mortal life.

Did you ever read Richard Grant White's article on what he terms "Heterophony," meaning false writing, or thinking one thing and writing another? Well, we were guilty of that last week. We desired to call attention to the adjournment of the Old Folks' picnic, to be held at the residence of Jesse Wilson, in Almira, and while we thought Jesse Wilson, we wrote Jesse James. We have no desire to invite the old pioneers to the residence of the redoubtable Jesse James, where they would, no doubt, find the climate too warm to be agreeable. The picnic has been further adjourned on account of the Pioneer Association at Lawton, until Wednesday, June 13th, at the residence of Jesse Wilson.

The union memorial services held at the Disciple church, on Sunday last, were a success. The Grand Army boys turned out in full force and marched from the armory to the church in uniform, carrying their new flag at the head of the column. The exercises consisted of short addresses delivered by Revs. Harvey, Burns, Gault, Goodman, and Cole, enlivened with elegant singing by a choir selected for the occasion, led by Geo. W. Koons, Esq. Commander Heckert made a short and appropriate address, explanatory of the objects and aims of the Grand Army organization, and alluding to the duties of citizens as well as soldiers, to honor a day set apart as a national holiday, sacred to the memory of our deceased soldiers. The church was filled to its utmost capacity, many being unable to obtain entrance. Thanks to the ladies, the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with flowers and flags.

A letter from George W. Gould, dated at Ree Heights, Dak., May 20th, says, "After a journey of eleven days I arrived at this place with my stock in as good condition as could be expected. I was nine days getting through the blockade of emigrants, who were estimated to be two thousand in number. On the 3d of April we located five Antwerp boys six miles west and an equal distance north of here. They all have land adjoining each other. I have purchased an abandoned timber claim and now have 320 acres in one body, a house 16x24, 13 acres broke and seeded to oats, 47 acres of wheat, which I put in on shares, and am now breaking for corn, and have 7 acres planted. The soil is a rich black loam, easy to work, and good cultivation produces good crops. The country is settling up fast, but it is no place for faint heart or tender feet. It is only the chicken hearted who go back east and exaggerate the faults of the country. Ree Heights is a town of one years growth, its inhabitants are of a substantial class, and the town is growing in a steady and business like manner, with a good country to back it."
